

This petition from ARRL is the most complete statement that covers the whole question in simplest form and should be considered in the final decision of the FCC. It I believe it is the views of most of the the membership.